Up to 25 users

P-6 | High security department shredder with metal housing, sheet capacity of 13 sheets and a bin volume of 190 litres

Shredding material:

- Paper with staples and paper clips
- Plastic card
- Foil

The intimus 007 SE is engineered for high-security shredding within departments handling extremely confidential documents. This shredder is capable of destroying paper documents, even with staples and paper clips, as well as credit cards and foils, ensuring thorough and discreet document disposal. It achieves a high security level with its precise 0,8 x 12 mm cross-cut shredding capability at P-6 security level, rendering document recovery utterly impossible. Designed for ease of movement and flexibility, it comes equipped with castors, allowing for effortless transportation and positioning in any departmental workspace to enhance operational efficiency. The shredder underscores a supreme level of security and workflow optimization, featuring a 190-litre cardboard container that meets the demands of larger departments with significant shredding needs. The sturdy metal housing provides exceptional durability, ensuring long-lasting performance and protection for the product's internal components.
